

SCHOOL of Richmond Ballet

Children's Division: INVITATION TO THE Dance

The School of Richmond Ballet Invitation to the Dance program for students three and four years old will introduce your child to ballet through movement and music. Your child's natural love of dancing will be enhanced through body awareness, listening skills, and rhythm in a structured yet imaginative environment. The magical world of ballet will come alive when students meet members of the Richmond Ballet Professional Company in the class room and in rehearsal.

The School of Richmond Ballet takes students from the classroom to the theater for a ballet adventure designed especially for students five, six, and seven years old. Each week students enjoy a variety of activities which include dancing the SRB ballet syllabus and learning about the story, music, costumes, and scenery of a ballet. Students will visit dancers from the Richmond Ballet's professional company, enjoy behind the scene experiences, and attend a ballet performance at the Carpenter Theatre at Richmond CenterStage.
